Opinion Delivered March 15, 2007

PRO SE MOTION TO FILE BELATED
PETITION FOR REVIEW [CIRCUIT
COURT OF GRANT COUNTY, CR
2005-23, CR 2005-32, HON. PHILLIP
SHIRRON, JUDGE]

MOTION DENIED.

PER CURIAM

Terry L. Casey, also known as Terry Lynn Casey, entered a conditional plea of guilty to two counts of residential burglary and two counts of theft of property. The plea was conditioned upon his right to appeal from the denial of a motion to suppress items seized from the trunk of his car. The Arkansas Court of Appeals affirmed. Casey v. State, CACR 06-120 (Ark. App. Nov. 8, 2006).

On February 21, 2007, petitioner filed in this court a pro se motion to file a belated petition for review. Rule 2-4(a) of this court requires that all petitions for review be filed within eighteen days from the date of the decision. As grounds for the request, petitioner asserts that as a layman, he is unfamiliar with the time frames within which to file pleadings. The motion is denied. Petitioner demonstrates no good cause in the motion to permit a belated petition for review.

Motion denied.
